The Royal Oak
Meavy

Rum Menu
Pusser’s ‘Gunpowder Proof’ is a traditional Royal Navy style rum. Produced at original Admiralty strength and in accordance with the Admiralty’s blending recipe, it was last used when the Royal Navy discontinued its daily ration on 31 July 1970. The nose is full of dried fruits, dates, prunes and slightly overripe figs. The palate is smooth yet very sweet with plenty of dark, syrupy, stewed fruits.

Captain Morgan
40% Vol

This original rum is a rum that embodies the spirit of those backstreet tavern parties – with a rich and full-bodied taste perfect for the modern day buccaneers who seek real, authentic fun with their crew. It is intensely deep and rich in taste with a smoky, cask finish.
Morgan Spiced

Admiral Benbow
37.5% Vol

This navy rum is produced from rums made in a couple of islands in the Caribbean. It is named for an Admiral who served in the Royal Navy from 1678 until his death in 1702 from a wound to his leg he suffered in the West Indies under French fire. It is an intensely rich rum consisting of spicy apple and pepper flavours.

Mount Gay

In 1910, the twin phenomena of a total solar eclipse and the passage of Helleys comet inspired the creation of Eclipse, a rum whose surpassing depth and complexity epitomise the art of Barbadian rum making. Brilliant golden amber in colour with complex aromas whose rich, seamless harmony is interwoven with distinctive floral and fruity notes of apricot and banana with hints of vanilla and a subtle smokiness imparted by the Kentucky oak barrels in which the rum is patiently aged.
This rum is made from the finest sugar cane and distilled in Guyana, South America. Blended aromas of toffee, cinnamon, cloves and pepper on the nose whilst smooth yet spicy on the palate. Full of demerara flavours.
